Manifesting 1,2,3 Workshop with Ken Elliott, author of Manifesting 123 and you don't need #3

Location: Ken Elliott home 5282 Red Pass Way, Castle Rock, CO

“All truths are easy to understand once they are discovered.”
Galileo Galilei

It is incredibly rare that new, core knowledge is discovered in science, metaphysics or other fields.

Join the author Ken Elliott in a ground-breaking lecture as he reveals something never written about and fully explained until now. What is contained in Manifesting 123 and you don't need #3 is new information that is of paramount importance to everyone and accessible to all. Ken will describe the observable fact that our thoughts are continually taking form in the unseen, near-physical world around us before they come into our lives. You will come away with the sure knowledge of how to use this great gift.

For 15 years the author experienced sending numerous objects in thought to those gifted enough to watch them come into form in real time.
All of the manifesting books up to this point make the correct assumption of thoughts creating things but until now, no one has described how thoughts literally become reality. There is a very big difference between wishing and hoping that you are attracting something and the certain understanding of how something works.

Using our thoughts to influence matter is one of our greatest gifts, our birthright. It is equally available to all and at last, explained in a simple way that you can put to immediate use.
