It is incredibly rare that new, core knowledge is discovered in science, metaphysics or other fields.

Join the author Ken Elliott in this ground-breaking workshop as he reveals something never written about and fully explained until now.

In this remarkable workshop you will discover what your thoughts have been creating, how it actually works (the REAL Secret) and you will come away with your empowering script to start making changes in your life beginning now!

Make Manifesting Work For You!

What is contained in Manifesting 123 and you don't need #3 is new information that is of paramount importance to everyone and accessible to all. Ken will describe the observable fact that our thoughts are continually taking form in the unseen, near-physical world around us before they come into our lives. You will come away with the sure knowledge of how to use this great gift, your birthright.

For 15 years the author experienced sending numerous objects in thought to those gifted enough to watch them come into form in real time. All of the manifesting books up to this point make the correct assumption of thoughts creating things but until now, no one has described how thoughts literally become reality.
